Copyright ownership

The following steps will establish who has copyright ownership for the work.

After we have identified the relevant copyright owners, we will provide instructions on how the license(s) can be signed and submitted.

Do you own the copyright to this work?

Please select and confirm from the following options

☐ Yes, I own the copyright to this work

This is the correct selection for many works

In most academic and healthcare institutions, faculty retain the copyright for work that they have authored. Please check with your institution to see if different policies apply.

☐ No, I do not own the copyright to this work

Another party may own the copyright to this work

This can apply if:

- This work was completed as part of official duties during the course of employment. Example employers where this can apply:
 - Local government agencies (U.S., U.K., etc.)
 - Private companies
 - Intergovernmental Organizations (IGOs) or Non-governmental Organizations (NGOs)
- There is a related clause outlined in the original statement of work
- The work has been contracted or 'made for hire'

Do you want to make your article open access?

 Open Access

Wiley has an agreement with your institution, Karolinska Institutet, to cover eligible open access article publication charges (APCs) for their affiliated authors. Visit our Bibsam page to find out what type of APC coverage is available from your institution.

Make your article freely available for everyone to read, copy, distribute and share.

Publishing open access:

- Enables the greatest possible readership and multidisciplinary influence
- Allows your article to be cited widely and achieve the greatest possible impact in your field
- Complies with open access mandates - retain copyright and choose a Creative Commons license

Note 1: How to pay APC on your own, not using your institution's OA agreement

Get your OA request denied

If, for some reason, you don't want to use your institution's OA agreement with Wiley but pay APC on your own, click "Yes" as shown in the previous page to submit an OA request, and then reach out to your institution's OA administrator to get the OA request denied.

Once your request is denied, you can return to Author Services and order OA at your cost. (follow the link on the right)

1. Submit an OA request by clicking "Yes" as shown in the previous page
2. Ask your institution's OA administrator to deny the OA request
